14TH EDITION OF INTER COLLEGE YOUSUF MEMORIAL CRICKET TOURNAMENT

In the third match of ongoing 14th YOUSUF MEMORIAL CRICKET TOURNAMENT being played at Islamia College of Science and Commerce, Srinagar Cricket field, Kashmir University faced Govt. Degree College, Pampore today.

There was a brief pre-match ceremony at the toss in which Principal, Islamia College of Science and Commerce, Srinagar Dr. Shiekh Ajaz Bashir interacted with the players. Principal Sir appreciated the excellent work put in by the ground staff in keeping the turf intact. The stage was set for an exciting game of cricket as both sides looked in good shape. Batting first after winning the toss, Kashmir University openers put a century run partnership with star batsman Asim making 75 of 45 deliveries receiving good support from Tajamul 54 of 51. The innings finished at 176 for 3 wickets. Govt. Degree College Pampore bowlers received no support from their fielders as many chances went begging. Adfar took 2 wickets. In reply Govt. Degree College, Pampore failed to get a start and were left tottering at 44 for 4 wickets in 8 overs due to some good swing bowling by Sharif who removed the first three batsmen. Kashmir University bowlers kept the pressure on backed up with nice fielding and the asking rate climbed up. There was no noticeable partnership making the matters worse. Finally, Govt. Degree College, Pampore were all out for 142 giving Kashmir University a win by 34 runs. Sharif finally bagged 4 wkts, Majid took 2. Asim Bashir was adjudged Man of the Match.

Govt. Degree College, Bemina will face Govt. Degree College , Frisal Kulgam in Tomorrow's match.
